WHERE SHALL WE GO IN 1968?

The meeting place for the 1968 Annual Meeting will be chosen at the meeting in Sarasota. Where shall we go? Do you want us in your area? What do you have to offer?

Work up your request and be ready to ask the group to come to your area. This item of business will be the next to the last on the agenda. Election of new officers is the last item.

NOMINATIONS

President, Ralph Philo appointed Paul White, 505 Avenue O SE, Winter Haven, Florida as International Nominating Committee Chairman. Each chapter should appoint a member who intends to attend the Annual Meeting to this committee.

Mr. White will write to each chapter giving the method he wishes to use in making up a slate of new officers to be presented to the membership for their consideration at the Annual Meeting.
